Thank you for your ongoing generous support.

Collection Pro Terra Sancta

Following a request from the Holy See, Archbishop Farrell this year again asked that we take up a collection on Good Friday for the Holy Land, Pro Terra Sancta. This collection took place in dioceses throughout the world. We were invited to pray and to collect funds for the Catholic community in the Holy Land and for the maintenance of the Holy Places there.

The response was extraordinarily generous and almost €1000 has been collected. If you were not at our Good Friday services and would like to make a donation, please drop it into the parish office or the sacristy. Thank you.

Thought for the day

How did any of us make the journey towards faith in Christ? No doubt a great part of it is simply what we received—usually from family. At some point, did I make a conscious choice? Perhaps at other times, I felt like walking away the faith project? What kept me going? Did a more personal ownership of faith result? Perhaps I can identify with the intuition of John O'Donahue, "Faith is helpless attraction to the divine." In spite of everything, in spite of myself, somehow it is part of who I am. Mysterious God, we are those who have seen and at the same time not seen. Help to look beyond the simple gifts of each day to see you the giver behind—and in—every gift. Help us embrace the grace that we may know true blessedness in believing.

Fr. Kieran O'Mahony

Novena of Divine Mercy

The Novena ends on Sunday 7th April 2024 with Mass in the Church of the Three Patrons at 3pm.

'Jesus, I trust in you'.

Thank you to all who have returned Easter Dues. All dues are remitted in full to the Dublin Diocese and are used in the support of your parish and diocesan clergy—those in active ministry and those who are retired or ill. Your ongoing generosity is very much appreciated.

Envelopes are available at the back of the church.
