Hymns for our 11.00am Mass this Sunday

Entrance Hymn

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch; like me.
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Recessional Hymn

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven,
to his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed healed, restored, forgiven,
who like me his praise should sing?
Praise him, praise him,
Praise him, praise him,
praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour
to our fathers in distress;
praise him still the same for ever,
slow to chide and swift to bless:
Praise him, praise him,
Praise him, praise him,
glorious in his faithfulness.

There are hymn books available at the back of the church. You are welcome to use one during Mass. We ask that you leave them back at the end of Mass. There is now a hymn board on the altar which shows the number of the hymns being sung.

All our volunteers are invited to attend a Vulnerable Adult/Child Safeguarding training session on Wednesday 11th September from 7.30pm to 9.00pm in St Charles Centre, Mount Argus Parish. I encourage you all to attend, especially if you have not received training in this area in the last 3 years.

Fr. Paul

Building Hope

Copies of Archbishop Farrell's recent letter are available at the back of the church. We are asked to pray the following prayer in all the churches of the Dublin Diocese this weekend as we discern the future together.

'Jesus' concern is for our hearts...he seeks to draw us close, heart-to-heart with him. May we open our hearts, inviting the Spirit to guide our every action, awakening and enlivening us as we build hope together across the Archdiocese.'
