Easter cards and offering envelopes have been posted to parishioners this week. They are also available on the table at the back of the church. Offerings may be returned to the parish office or sacristy or placed in the secure safe at the back of the church. You may also make an offering online on the parish website.
 We thank you for your continued very generous support of your parish and diocesan clergy, including our ill and retired priests.

We wish a very happy Easter to all our parishioners who may be travelling over the Easter season. May you be blessed with peaceful and safe travels.

The Donkey—GK Chesterson

When fishes flew and forests walked

*And figs grew upon thorn,
Some moment when the moon was blood
Then surely I was born.*

*With monstrous head and sickening cry
And ears like errant wings,
The devil's walking parody
On all four-footed things.*

*The tattered outlaw of the earth,
Of ancient crooked will;
Starve, scourge, deride me: I am dumb,
I keep my secret still.*

*Fools! For I also had my hour;
One far fierce hour and sweet:
There was a shout about my ears,
And palms before my feet.*

Collection Pro Terra Sancta

Following a request from the Holy See, Archbishop Farrell has this year again asked that we take up a collection on Good Friday for the Holy Land, Pro Terra Sancta. This collection takes place in dioceses throughout the world. We are invited to pray and to collect funds for the Catholic community in the Holy Land and for the maintenance of the Holy Places there. You may leave donations into the sacristy or parish office or you may donate online on the parish website. We thank you for your generosity. Copies of a letter from the Custos of Holy Land are on the table at the back of the church.

Making a chiming of a passing bell—a nun who entered the Assumption Order in 1951 finds countless reasons for joy in later life (Tablet Magazine 7th March 2026).

There are copies of this article on the table at the back of the church—please feel free to take a copy home with you.

We pray for all our faithful departed and for those who grieve for them. May they rest in peace. Mass cards are available in the parish office and in the sacristy. An offering is received with gratitude and is another means of supporting your local clergy. If you make an mass offering online, please contact the office with your intention.

Parish volunteers—a date for your diary.

There will be a gathering of the various Beechwood Avenue Parish volunteer groups in the Parish Pastoral Centre on Mountain View Road on Monday 20th April from 7.00pm to 9.00pm. We encourage all our volunteers to attend.

They will hammer their swords into ploughshares and their spears into sickles. Nation will not lift sword against nation, no longer will they learn how to make war—Isaiah 2:4

*God of peace, bearer of hope, we seek your help for the peoples of the Middle East.
Quiet the clamour of war and guide us towards peace.
Where there is hatred and division
sow seeds of calm and openness.
Where there is destruction help us to rebuild.
Where children are crying bring an end to tears.
Shelter your peoples and protect them
Guide them and keep them from harm.
Show us how to break down the barriers of history and fear and breathe whispers of hope. Amen.*
