Tap and Go machines :

There is a Tap and Go machine at the back of the church to allow you to contribute to the parish. Donations made using this machine remain in the parish. The other Tap and Go machine at the back of the church is to support the priests of the diocese and the Share diocesan services. Thank you for your ongoing generous support.

Please scan the QR Code to contribute to 1st and Share collection.

Your contribution will be split 60% to 1st Collection (for support of diocesan and parish clergy) and 40% to Share for the support of developing parishes. Thank you for your ongoing generous support.

Gluten free hosts are available here at all Masses for those with a gluten intolerance.

World Mission Sunday 18th October 2026

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. The theme for this year's celebration of Mission Sunday is: "One in Christ, United in Mission".

Right now, missionaries desperately need your help. In many poorer parishes in Africa, Asia, and Latin America missionaries are serving on the front line. They already do so much, walking hand-in-hand with marginalised communities, long before and after any emergency. You can show missionaries you care by supporting World Mission Sunday. Your prayers and generosity will change lives. We ask for your generous support at our Masses this weekend.

Do This in Memory of Me

We extend a very warm welcome to the children from Scoil Bhride and Lios na nOg who are joining us at our 9.30am Mass this Sunday as they begin their preparation for First Holy Communion. We ask for your prayers for the children, their parents, families and teachers.

We also are very pleased to welcome back Pádraigín Clancy, our Parish Sacramental Coordinator, who will be working with the children this year.

The dates for the Do This in Memory of Me Masses are

- 8th November
- 13th December
- 24th January
- 14th February
- 14th March
- 25th April

In November we remember

You are all very welcome to join us for our annual Mass of remembrance on Saturday 7th November at 5.30pm.

As the autumn draws in and trees lose their colours we recall with affection and hope those who were part of our life journey and who have now passed through the veil of death.

We will remember in a special way those whose funerals were celebrated here in the last twelve months.

During Mass the beautiful Fauré Requiem will be sung by the Dublin Consort of Voices.

United with Jesus Christ in the Eucharist we pray for peace and with St. John Henry Newman we pray 'lead kindly light amid the encircling gloom, lead thou me on'.

Refreshments will be served after Mass.

We are delighted to share some very encouraging news from the Vocations Team: there are now six people studying for the Archdiocese of Dublin in 2026 — four in Maynooth, studying Philosophy and Theology, and two beginning their Propaedeutic Year in Valladolid, Spain. We give heartfelt thanks to their families, friends and, especially, to the parishes and communities who have supported and encouraged these young men throughout their journey of discernment and continue to accompany them as they prepare for priesthood.

We ask all of you to continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and if you know someone who may be considering a vocation, please encourage them to get in touch with the Vocations Team. Fr Seamus McEntee or Fr Bill O'Shaughnessy would be delighted to meet with them, listen to their story and accompany them on their journey of discernment. You can contact us at vocations@dublindiocese.ie or bill.oshaughnessy@dublindiocese.ie.

We ask for your prayers for the repose of the souls of the late Pauline O'Regan, Joe Foyle and Anthony Gallagher whose funerals took place here this week. May they rest in peace. We offer our sympathy to their bereaved families.

We also offer our sympathy to our sacristan Margaret Brennan on the death earlier this week of her sister Mary Fitzgerald. May Mary rest in peace.

We pray for all our faithful departed. May they rest in peace. We pray for those who mourn them.

We pray also for those in our community who are ill or housebound. If you have a family member or neighbour who would like a visit from Fr Paul please contact the parish office.

Mass cards are available in the parish office and in the sacristy. An offering is received with gratitude and is another means of supporting your local clergy. If you make an offering for a mass intention online please contact the parish office with your intention.

Annual Diocesan Survey

The annual diocesan survey of Mass attendances continues at all our Masses this weekend. The survey will conclude next weekend.
